Mr. T. G. Robinson, a prominent insurance man of Dyersburg, a member of the Endowment Board, Knights of Pythias, and one of the most progressive young men in the state, was in the city Saturday to attend the quarterly meeting of the Endowment Board. While in the city, Mr. Robinson stopped with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young, of Eighth avenue, North.

Mrs. Susan Lowe, Superintendent of the Tennessee School for the Blind, was suffering this week with a threatened attack of pneumonia. Her illness at the beginning of the week was deemed very critical, so much so that three physicians were summoned to the bedside, as was a trained nurse. Thursday she was resting nicely and showed signs of improvement.

Rev. H. L. P. Jones, D. D., a presiding elder in the A. M. E. Church from the Shelbyville District, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Woodfolk, of Sixteenth avenue, North, this week. He leaves Sunday to fill engagements in his district.

There were two new letter carriers added to the local post office force this month.

Mr. W. R. Woodfolk, reported for duty Thursday at the post office, after a fifteen days' vacation.

Mrs. Clara Williams, of Chicago, Ill., left the city this week. She has been here for the past two weeks attending the bedside of a sick brother, Mr. Ed. Ewing, who resides on Murfreesboro pike. Mr. Ewing has been sick for some time with typhoid malaria, but is now convalescing.

Mr. Robert Bell, the artist, with his wife and children left the city Wednesday night for Topeka, Kans., where they will live in the future.

Mrs. Hattie Bender, of 622 Webster street, who has been indisposed of late, is rapidly improving.

The H. T. G. M. Club will meet with Miss Carrie Bryant, second avenue, S., Tuesday, November 26.

Prof. J. D. Crenshaw, who has been very much indisposed for the past few days, has about recovered.

The hunting season opened last Saturday and many of the devotees of Nimrod tramped over the country in the pursuit of the elusive quail. Saturday evening covered with dust and weary, hungry and foot-sore, was the genial Dr. J. P. Crawford, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias. If the jovial Dr. Crawford killed anything, with the exception of time, it has not been reported.

Mr. A. M. Cockrill returned to the city Saturday from a trip in the rural districts in the interest of the U. B. F.
